

Send them off to school with a 'spiritual backpack'

Back-to-school sales started just after the Fourth of July. Most of them focused on the supplies kids need to make the shift from summer to fall – the stuff. But kids need more than stuff to be successful in school (and in life). They need a strong foundation of faith. Take Out's "Totally Metaphorical Back-to- School Fall 2018 Catalog" can help you outfit your kids' spiritual backpacks with the equipment they need, and it doesn't cost a cent.
