

St. Anthony of Egypt ... and his pig

This 5-minute video is created from still photos of a play for paper theater by Father Matthew Powell, O.P., about the life of the third-century hermit of Egypt, his battles against the devil and his faithful pig. Paper theater (also called toy or model theater) is the simplest form of puppetry, using paper and cardboard to create miniature performances.